

CORRIDORS, PUBLIC AREAS

Free of Obstructions: All building exit access corridors shall be fire-rated and free of obstructions including display cases, fire extinguishers / cabinets, drinking fountains, public telephones, vending machines, etc. When located in an egress corridor, frequently used items such as drinking fountains and telephones shall not obstruct the full flow of traffic, even when in use. In many cases this will require that an alcove be provided. Vending machines shall be